From the closing of Mary Fran's speech:

"I look forward to seeing all of you back here for alumni weekends, Mardi Gras, weddings, maybe even our children's graduations, or whatever else might energize us to migrate back to what has undoubtedly been our home for the past four years. When those days arrive, I imagine we'll visit our old apartments and remember the nights by the gazebo, the days on the golf course, and the occasional party. Okay, let's be honest here – more than occasional. And who could forget those themed parties and the costumes we came up with? I can certainly tell you from experience that acrylic paint can be safely applied to the skin. Along with the crazy times came the truly meaningful ones. We'll also remember the hours spent with people we could have never foreseen how much we would care about. As we walk across campus we will remember the magnificence that passing beautiful St. Joseph Chapel brings to an otherwise ordinary day. We'll see how Spring Hill College has transformed the lives of those sitting all around us today and how that transformation has been continued throughout their lives. We'll be reaminded how thankful we are to this place that has renewed us in every sense word; and hopefully we, in turn, will be renewing the Earth in a way that goes even beyond our carbon footprints. Congratulations, Class of 2009!"
